Harrisburg Academy Hires Katherine Rill as Assistant Director of Admission for International Students

WORMLEYSBURG, PA – Harrisburg Academy is pleased to welcome Katherine Rill as its assistant director of admission for international students. She began her new role on June 5, 2017.

Rill’s resume showcases 15 years of experience in enrollment management and international student recruitment for independent schools. Rill has experience in all areas of admission and increased school enrollment by 200 percent in her previous appointment as director of admission at Linden Hall School for Girls in Lititz, Pennsylvania (from 2001-2015). Rill has traveled extensively throughout Europe, South American, and Asia for international student recruitment. She enjoys strategically and creatively managing programs and activities in a fast-paced environment, and she looks forward to similar work at Harrisburg Academy.

Most recently, Rill worked as interim development director at Lancaster County Council of Churches. She also served a senior administrator at Sotheby’s in New York, New York.

Rill earned a bachelor’s degree in history and a master’s degree in European history from American University. Additionally, she has completed The American Arts Course through Sotheby’s Educational Studies.

About Harrisburg Academy:

Established in 1784, Harrisburg Academy is the 17th oldest non-public school in the nation and Harrisburg’s only independent school. Our coed, diverse school community inspires students from age three through 12th grade by providing an academically challenging and globally minded liberal arts education focused on dynamic classroom experiences, strong student outcomes, and a commitment to character development. The Academy proudly stands as the first school in the greater Harrisburg area to offer the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program and merit scholarship.
