Harrisburg Academy Head of School to Retire — Employment Search Underway

WORMLEYSBURG, PA – As a result of the planned retirement of Dr. Jim Newman at the end of the 2018-19 academic year, Harrisburg Academy is conducting a national search for a new head of school. The Academy is seeking someone who will provide strong leadership and strategic guidance in the development of the school’s advancement and development interests, working closely with an array of constituencies. This individual will have the ability to clearly articulate the Academy’s value in a compelling way while helping to grow enrollment, expand planned and annual giving, as well as cultivate grant opportunities.

All interested and qualified professionals are invited to learn more about the open head of school position (contract to begin July 1, 2019), the school, its mission, and community on the Academy’s website. Visit www.harrisburgacademy.org/headofschoolsearch for full information. The position will be open until filled, but the deadline for submission of all materials is Aug. 31, 2018.

Ten members of the Academy community are serving on the Head of School Search Committee, representing a diverse cross-section of constituent roles and backgrounds. Committee members include: Keith Clark (committee chair), Lindsay Bowman, Kim Cole, Javier Idrovo, Stacy Klann, Terry Lehman, Stefanie Niles, Kristina Pae, Mark Parsells '78, Gretchen Qualls, and Thomas B. Schmidt III (click to read more biographical information on Search Committee members). The entire Academy community will have the opportunity to provide candidate input to the Search Committee throughout the process until a final hiring decision has been made later this academic year.

About Harrisburg Academy:

Established in 1784, Harrisburg Academy is the 17th oldest non-public school in the nation and Harrisburg’s only independent school. Our coed, diverse school community inspires students from age three through 12th grade by providing an academically challenging and globally minded liberal arts education focused on dynamic classroom experiences, strong student outcomes, and a commitment to character development. The Academy proudly stands as the first school in the greater Harrisburg area to offer the International Baccalaureate Diploma program and merit scholarship.
